
PRIVACY STATEMENT OF THE VAN GOGH MUSEUM FOUNDATION

The Van Gogh Museum aims to safeguard the privacy of visitors to its website as well as possible. In this statement we explain how we handle personal data that we obtain via our website.

We do not collect any personal data on our website unless you furnish it to us voluntarily on the request form. If you submit a request via this website, you are asked to furnish your name, address, postcode, town/city and country of residence, your telephone number and mobile number and email address. We use these details to provide our services, and more specifically to process your request. We also record information (such as the IP address you used) in order to compile statistics on the use of our website as well as to protect it.

We handle all the details you furnish in a way that is safe and trustworthy. Your details are only provided to parties that require them in order to provide our services or to handle your request or in the cases referred to in article 8 of the General Terms and Conditions of the Van Gogh Museum Foundation for purposes of researching authenticity.

If you wish to inspect or correct the personal details you have furnished, please send us a letter to the following address: Van Gogh Museum Foundation, Department of Collection and, Research, PO Box 75366, 1070 AJ AMSTERDAM, the Netherlands, or send an email to research@vangoghmuseum.nl.
